

Dear CHIC Partners,
Dear Friends,
Dear ASN-Members and -Partners,
Dear Guests,

Prof. Dr. Joanna Hoffmann, Chair of Art Science Node (ASN), and her exceptional Team are delighted to invite you to the opening celebration for the upcoming international, cross-disciplinary CHIC-event:

Our Bio-Tech Planet

Future of Plants and Humans

To be held at the majestic Botanical Garden in the Center of Rome.
The Vernissage will take place on Monday 24th of October at 14:30h.

It would be our great pleasure to mark, in your company, the opening of our week-long event and to witness the coming together of scientists, artists, humanists and the public as we explore together the future of plants and humans.

We look forward to seeing you then!
Prof. Dr. Joanna Hoffmann and Team

Thank you for your RSVP
